

The International Society for Vaccines

ISV New Initiatives for Support

The new ISV Sponsorship & Donation Program is designed to help ensure the sustainability of the Society.

Maintain the Momentum of Vaccines

Since the introduction of vaccines more than two centuries ago, the importance of vaccine development and population immunization has been demonstrated for the benefit of human and animal health and wellness.

Vaccines are now widely regarded as necessary protections against infectious disease threats throughout high, middle- and low-income country populations.

However, vaccines have come under fire through misinformation and anti-vaccine campaigns.

The importance of vaccines and immunotherapeutics was clearly demonstrated during the COVID-19 pandemic.

It is Critical to Reinforce the Societal Value of Vaccines
